Committee Sets $150,000 for Millwood Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Appropriations Committee has recommended that four million dollars be allotted for work on the Arkansas River and its tributaries.

The recommendation, which now goes to the full Senate, is in contrast to a House-passed bill which made no such appropriation.

The House bill does include a separate item of $341,000 for Arkansas River bank stabilization and this is in the Senate version too. Also in both bills is $300,000 for Arkansas River planning as distinguished from construction.

The Senate Appropriations Committee, which met yesterday, would increase to five million dollars the allotment for Greers Ferry, the House voted four million dollars.

The Senate committee also recommended some upward revisions in smaller construction items on water projects wholly or partly in Arkansas. It would set aside $150,000 for planning of the Millwood Reservoir, which the House disregarded.

The Arkansas or Arkansas-connected projects in the Senate bill, with recommended appropriations contrasted to House appropriations, are:

- Army Engineer planning—Arkansas River and tributaries, $800,000 ($500,000); Millwood Reservoir $150,000 (none).
- Army Engineer construction—Arkansas River and tributaries, emergency bank stabilization $541,000 ($341,000); Arkansas River and tributaries other than bank stabilization, $4,000,000 (none); Beaver Reservoir $750,000 ($750,000); Bull Shoals, Ark., and Mo., additional power units $500,000 ($500,000); Dardanelle Lock and Dam $2,500,000 ($2,500,000); Greers Ferry $5,000,000 ($4,000,000); Red River Levees below Denison Dam, Ark., La. and Tex., $750,000 ($400,000); Table Rock, Ark., and Mo., $12,400,000 ($12,400,000); Walnut Bayou $575,000 ($575,000); McKinney Bayou and Barkman Creek, Arkansas and Texas $300,000 (none).

One Killed in Auto Accident

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP)—One person was killed and eight others injured in the collision of two automobiles at Marbell in Madison County last night.

Died was Walter Elsey, about 60, one of the drivers. He was alone in his car.

The injured included the other driver, Clyde Howerton, about 39, of nearby Rudd. He was hospitalized here.

Howerton's wife and six other occupants of his car were treated for minor injuries and released.

Russians Call for East-West Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today that new Soviet proposals on the problem of preventing surprise attack might lead to technical military talks between the Soviets and the Western powers.

Dulles talked with newsmen after a conference with President Eisenhower.

He compared possible military talks with the Soviet to the East-West scientific conference just started at Geneva on problems involved in policing any future agreement to suspend nuclear tests.

The new Soviet ideas on doing something about making it more difficult for the great powers to launch massive surprise attack were set forth in a letter from Soviet Premier Khrushchev to President Eisenhower Wednesday.

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev called today for an East-West conference of military and civilian experts to work out an agreement to prevent surprise attacks by one nation upon another.

Khrushchev made his proposal in a letter to President Eisenhower Wednesday, and released it to the Soviet ministry news conference in Moscow this afternoon.

He suggested the United States and Soviet Union take the initiative in calling the conference, that the conference be held in the near future and that the participants include the United States, the Soviet Union "and possibly representatives of some other government."

McMath Rips Into Faubus' Charges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Former Gov. Sid McMath issued a blistering denunciation of Gov. Orval Faubus last night for charging that McMath had made out-of-state trips to get anti-Faubus campaign funds.

McMath termed Faubus' accusations a "false and libelous attack."

"My old associate Orval Faubus has been confused for some time," the former governor said in a prepared statement. "He has now become vicious."

In campaign speeches yesterday, Faubus accused McMath of making three trips east and one to the West Coast in efforts to raise money for fighting the governor's third term bid.

He also charged that McMath was linked with out-of-state "meddlers" who sought to interfere in Arkansas affairs.

McMath said:

"His statement that I have just completed another trip to the east is wholly false. The fact is that I returned on Tuesday from a trip to the west—to California on legal business and to Sikeston, Mo., to address an RBA meeting."

"Mr. Faubus is correct only in his assertion that I have discussed the Little Rock situation with what he calls outsiders. I have talked the matter over with Harry Truman, Adlai Stevenson and other old friends and associates in the Democratic Party."

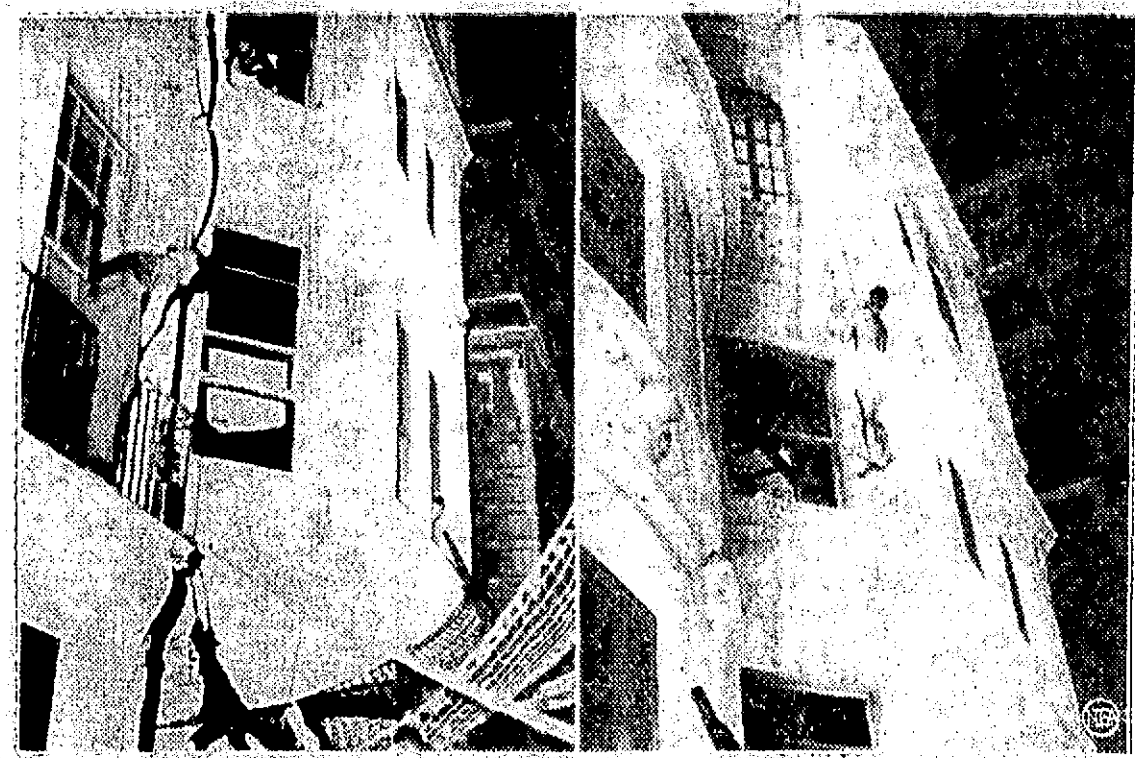

"I have told each of them what I have said publicly here in Arkansas from the first day Orval called out the National Guard—that I consider the governor's actions in the Little Rock school crisis a national tragedy and one the people of Arkansas would never support if the facts were fully known."

Faubus made some of his charges last night in a Little Rock speech which was broadcast on a statewide radio-television network.

McMath concluded his statement by saying:

"In view of the false and libelous personal attack on me as a private citizen and practicing attorney, I shall immediately demand equal time on all public radio stations to reply in detail to Orval's unfounded attack."

McMath was governor from 1922 to 1928 and now has a law office in Little Rock.

Historic Washington Ready to Welcome Visitors Into Old Homes in July 4 Observance

Historic Washington is ready to open its doors to hundreds of visitors on July 4th. Tourists and visitors are asked to register at the old Hempstead County Court house upon their arrival in town. Instructions and literature will be available there.

Among the points of interest open to visitors will be the old courthouse, the confederate state capital, the pioneer cemetery, the confederate cemetery, the Methodist church, the Baptist church, the Presbyterian church, the Trimble home, and other buildings and sites of historical importance.

Visitors may either find their own way to each attraction, which is marked, or take the guided tour of buses. There will be no charge for transportation, or for entrance into any building except the Trimble home. The conducted tour will be $1.00 with the proceeds going to the Pioneer Washington Restoration project. Tickets on the bus tour will include a visit through the Trimble home, which was constructed in 1847. Anyone wishing to go through the Trimble home without taking the bus tour may do so by paying a nominal entrance fee.

At noon a luncheon will be served to visitors in the Washington Gymnasium building at $1.00 per plate. This luncheon will be limited to 300 people, and tickets will be secured at the time of registration on a first come first served basis.

There will be lunch and cold drink stands available for those who do not wish to attend the luncheon, or who are unable to obtain tickets.

Well informed persons will be available at each attraction to explain the historical background of the buildings, or site, and the entire morning of July 4th will be devoted by the people of Washington to showing visitors the town.

State, district and county candidates, or their representatives, will speak in the afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. At 1:45 p. m. the Leslie-Huddleston Post of the American Legion will present a flag to the officials of the town.

The Pioneer Washington Restoration Foundation proposes to restore the old town as a major tourist attraction similar to the one at Williamsburg, Virginia, and the open house on July 4th is to acquaint the people of this area with the possibilities and plans in the town.

Presbyterian Church

The quaint old Presbyterian Church building at Washington, Arkansas, will be one of the interesting structures opened to the public on July 4th.

This church was organized on April 29, 1849. The first pastor was Samuel Williamson, D. D., former president of Davidson College, North Carolina. His salary was $800.00 a year. In 1860 the Washington church dismissed 13 members to form the Marlboro' Presbyterian Church near Baytown.

The Synod of Arkansas met in Washington in 1860. It is believed that the Arkansas Synod was actually organized in the Washington church on that date. Whether that be true or not, it is evident that this church was at that time, the most prosperous and thriving Presbyterian Church in Arkansas. In 1861 seven members left this church to form the Greenwood church, located about three miles north of the present site of Hope. The Greenwood congregation later moved its building to Hope, and grew into what is now the First Presbyterian Church of that city.

The original Presbyterian church building was destroyed by a fire in 1902 and now has a new building at Little Rock.

Suspects Man May Have Anthrax

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—A suspected case of anthrax in a man was under investigation by physicians today.

A doctor said the case probably would not be definitely diagnosed until the weekend.

The man is in isolation at a hospital here. It was learned.

He arrived yesterday to check into the swelling of his hands and was immediately hospitalized.

The doctor, who declined to be identified, said that if the diagnosis turns out to be anthrax, it would be the first time he has encountered the cattle disease in a human.

An anthrax outbreak was reported recently in the Ouaghta River bottoms in south Arkansas. The doctor said he had not heard of any anthrax in livestock in the Desha or Chicot County area.

The disease can be transmitted to humans through open lesions in livestock, the doctor said.

He said the patient under observation is employed on a farm near here.

Hope Christian Church Elects New Officers

At the annual meeting of the First Christian Church last night, and the Board meeting which followed, officers were elected, reports were heard, and plans were made for the coming year.

One of the most encouraging reports was that of the House and Grounds Committee, of which Mrs. Malcolm Porterfield is chairman. The World Outreach committee, of which Mrs. Raymond Robins is chairman also gave one of the best reports in the history of the church, showing that the church and its auxiliary organizations had given over $1200 during the fiscal year toward missionary and benevolent causes outside of our own congregation.

Officers elected included, Chairman of the Board, Cline Franks; Vice Chairman, A. L. Parks; Secretary, Mrs. Roland Pearson; Treasurer, J. A. Davis; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Robins; Church School Superintendent, Malcolm Porterfield; Assistant Superintendent, Thomas B. Fenwick, Jr.; Elder for a two year term, Lloyd Coop; and for three year terms, Frank Rider, R. L. Ponder, and J. A. Davis. Deacon for a one year term, Dr. Vile Ogleby; for two year terms, H. C. Whitworth, Cline Franks, and Bertis Rettig; and for three year terms, Thomas Kinser, Sr., Malcolm Porterfield, Ernest Hockett, Bernice Ponder, Thomas Fenwick, Jr., Glenon Hucklebee, and David Pearson. Deaconesses for a three year term, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. Malcolm Porterfield, and Mrs. Cline Franks. Trustee for a three year term, Oliver Adams, Sr.

Challenge to Debate Issued By Mr. Ward

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Chancellor Lee Ward delivered a debate challenge to Gov. Orval Faubus yesterday, asking the chief executive to meet him at the Port of July picnic at Corning tomorrow.

Both candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor are expected to appear at the picnic.

Finkbeiner Discusses Segregation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gubernatorial candidate Chris Finkbeiner, an avowed segregationist, pledged in a Stuttgart campaign speech yesterday that he would do everything possible through the courts to maintain school segregation in districts that want it.

The Little Rock meal packer declared that placing Arkansas National Guardsmen around Little Rock Central High School resulted in the eventual admittance of Negroes instead of keeping them out.

He said a plan similar to the Little Rock integration program was tried out in North Carolina but after six weeks the Negroes returned to their own school.

Finkbeiner said:

"I feel certain that the students at Central High School would have taken part of the situation had it not been for the head of this administration, who was politically motivated."

He meant Gov. Orval Faubus, who ordered the guardsmen.

Finkbeiner's schedule yesterday carried him to DeWitt and Gillett as well as Stuttgart.

Today he planned to visit Nashville, Murfreesboro, Kirby, Amity, O'Neal, Caddo Gap, Norman, Mount Ida, Hot Springs and Morrilton.

Ward Takes Vote Drive to S. Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chancellor Lee Ward swings his campaign helicopter over south Arkansas today and will cap a full schedule of talks with a televised speech at Pine Bluff tonight.

The candidate for governor injected a new issue into his off-bitter criticisms of Gov. Orval Faubus yesterday.

He declared that Faubus could have taken advantage of a 1954 federal law that would result in tax savings for hundreds of thousands of Arkansas residents.

In speeches at Dumas, McGehee, Warren and Monticello, the former chancellor asserted that Arkansas could reduce their federal income tax payments if the state

Statement About Hope Man Is Branded Untrue

A statement in a news story concerning a Hope attorney appearing in this morning's edition of a state newspaper was emphatically denied here today.

The story, datelined Washington and written by Elizabeth Carpenter, concerned a charge by Congressman Oren Harris that a "combination of high powered public relations firms and lawyers" was trying to "intimidate the Legislative Oversight Committee."

The story said that Will Atkins of Hope, and Louis Graves of Nashville, both bitterly attacked Harris' support of Millwood Dam.

George Peck, president of the Southwest Water District, which led the battle here for the Millwood project branded the statement as untrue. "In fact, Mr. Atkins, not only supported Millwood Dam, he made frequent trips in behalf of the water district and was one of several speakers who toured towns in this area in support of the project. Nobody has worked harder for Millwood than Mr. Atkins and the statement to the contrary is absolutely untrue," Mr. Peck said.

In another development yesterday the Hempstead Democratic Central Committee, which is headed by Mr. Atkins as Chairman, passed a resolution that wholeheartedly commended the work being carried by Congressman Harris in the Sherman Adams investigation. The resolution, in part:

"Whereas, our Congressman, Hon. Oren Harris, has exhibited great courage and efficiency in directing the revelation of admittedly improper acts of the most powerful non-elected official in the Federal Government, therefore,

"Be it resolved by the Hempstead Democratic Central Committee, that we do hereby commend Congressman Harris for his actions aforesaid and we express the sincere hope that he will continue his valiant effort in this direction."

Farmers From 7 Counties to Visit Here

Cotton farmers in seven Southwest Arkansas counties will have an opportunity to attend a cotton visiting day Friday July 11 at the Southwest Branch Experiment Station at Hope.

Cecil M. Bittle, assistant director of the Branch Station, says the program will deal largely with research underway with cotton varieties, diseases, insect control and fertilizers. Members of the University of Arkansas College of Agriculture and Home Economics staff will present the program.

From the Experiment Station will be Dr. John White, associate director of the Arkansas Agricultural Experiment Station; Charles Hughes and Dr. G. W. Hardy, department of agronomy; Bob Hunter and Hodge Black, department of entomology; Dr. H. D. Fulton, department of plant pathology; Those from the Agricultural Extension Service include M. C. McDaniel, plant pathologist, Gordon Burpes, entomologist, and A. Hansen, district agent.

Others in the Moa group released were Henry Salmonson, 46, Portland, Ore.; Anthony Chamberlain, Coral Gables, Fla.; Howard A. Moache, Watertown, N.Y., and William Koster, 63, Akron, Ohio.

"They looked weary after five days in captivity. Some were unshaven and most wore dirt-stained clothes. But they retained their captors' and Chamberlain said a rebel doctor treated him for his chronic headaches."

"We were treated fine all the time and made a lot of friends," said Salmonson.

Every State Policeman in Arkansas will be on duty during the July 4 holiday in an effort to keep down traffic accidents. Officers will use a dozen planes and five radar sets as well as an unspecified number of unmarked state police cars. There should be no need to caution drivers to drive safely.

Governor Orval Faubus will bring his campaign to Hope next Monday night and will speak at 8 o'clock. The place for the speaking will be announced.

Says Rebel Leader Bans Helicopter

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Usually informed sources here said rebel leader Fidel Castro would not permit any U.S. helicopter flights into the hills of eastern Cuba today to bring out more North Americans held captive there. Five were brought out Wednesday night and the understanding was that more were to come today.

The informants here said a snag had developed in overtures by U.S. consular officials for their release.

Broadcast Says Rebels to Free All Americans

GUANTANAMO, Cuba (AP)—A broadcast from the mountain headquarters of rebel leader Fidel Castro has ordered the release of all Americans and Canadians held by rebels in the mountain jungle near here. Five of the 50 kidnapped by hands under Castro's brother Raul were released last night.

The broadcast said Castro knew nothing about the kidnapping of 47 Americans and 3 Canadians, "due to difficulties in communications."

It said Castro had ordered Raul to release the men. Raul commands rebels in the northern section of rebellious Oriente Province.

The broadcast, monitored in Puerto Rico, said:

"We know they (the captives) actually were not taken as hostages but only as observers so they could see how (President Fulgence) Batista's forces kill Cuban civilians, using arms furnished by the United States."

A speedy return of more kidnapped North Americans was expected here after U.S. Consul Park Mollum came out of the hills with five captives in a U.S. Navy helicopter yesterday. William returned with five of the 12 engineers seized by the rebels at the Moa Mining Co. in Northeastern Cuba last Thursday.

Darkness halted the flights, but the helicopter was readied to resume operations today.

GUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba (AP)—Fidel Castro's rebels are expected to proceed speedily with the release of more kidnapped Americans now that a U.S. consul has brought the first five captives out of the jungle safe and sound.

Park Mollum, U.S. consul at Santiago, flew into this big U.S. naval base Wednesday aboard a Navy helicopter with five of the 12 engineers seized by Castro's men at the Moa Mining Co. in northeastern Cuba last Thursday night.

Darkness halted the flights after the first two loads were brought in.

In all, the rebels kidnapped 46 Americans and 3 Canadians and spirited them into the mountains of Oriente from which Castro has carried on his guerrilla campaign. Among those seized were 20 American sailors and Marines from the Guantanamo base.

William and Vice Consul Henry Wichea were sent over the weekend to make contact with the rebels. Wichea remained in Cuba to continue negotiations.

William indicated those still held would be freed soon. He said he had seen a number of the men, including some servicemen, scattered in various small rebel camps. "They are all fine and in good health," he said.

Edward Cannon, 53, of Cornwall, Ont., said he was present at the conference with Raul Castro and the rebel leader — brother of Fidel — promised to stop kidnapping foreigners.

Others in the Moa group released were Henry Salmonson, 46, Portland, Ore.; Anthony Chamberlain, Coral Gables, Fla.; Howard A. Moache, Watertown, N.Y., and William Koster, 63, Akron, Ohio.

Christmas Gifts to White House Figures Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators heard today that Bernard Goldfine sent Christmas-time checks to secretaries of Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, and also to secretaries of Rep. John W. McCormack (D-Mass.), the House Democratic leader.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) said today mysterious phone calls inquiring into his past have been made to his constituents during this week's Goldfine hearings.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine acknowledged today making what he called Christmas presents to numerous White House and congressional employees. But he denied a suggestion that may explain the mysterious disposition of three-quarters of a million dollars.

He refused to give House investigators his records on the $750,000 of checks drawn on funds of his enterprises but never cashed.

House investigators had reported "incontrovertible proof" that Goldfine made payments to White House and congressional employees in both the present and past administrations.

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Peter V. Mack (D-Til.) said today Bernard Goldfine's treatment of his favors to Sherman Adams amounts to "income tax evasion by falsely listing gifts as business expenses."

But Goldfine said the bills got routine handling by his accountants and if the Internal Revenue Service "feels we made a mistake, we will adjust our returns."

Goldfine, who gave his explanation in a Washington Post column last night, faces questioning about that and other matters under oath today before a House subcommittee checking charges that Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, helped Goldfine get favored treatment from federal agencies.

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark.) said questioning of Goldfine probably will continue into next week.

Both Adams and Goldfine have said they exchanged gifts — on a personal basis. Both have denied that Goldfine sought or received favored treatment from the government as a result.

Fire Guts Big Movie Studio in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A $2,400,000 fire before dawn today destroyed the Samuel Goldwyn Studio's biggest sound stage and sets ready for a six-million-dollar movie version of "Porgy and Bess."

The spectacular, three-hour blaze was visible throughout Hollywood and nearby areas.

All walls and the roof of the 200 by 400-foot stage collapsed.

The fire eliminated a major Hollywood landmark, a studio where John Barrymore, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and other stars of an earlier era played some of their greatest scenes.

cratic gubernatorial nomination are scheduled to speak at the annual event. So is the third Democratic candidate, Chris Finkbeiner. The challenge was sent to Finkbeiner in a letter written by James E. Sloan, Ward's campaign manager.

Finkbeiner was asked what he would do. But he said he hadn't seen the letter yet and had no comment. Sloan suggested that Finkbeiner speak first and then each man would take 15 minutes with a rebuttal to follow.

At the start of the campaign, Finkbeiner refused a debate challenge

Sloan said in the letter that a crowd already would be at Corning.

Weather Bureau Pictures Holiday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau said Monday its 30-day outlook for July calls for temperatures to average above seasonal normals in the southern half of the country from the Rockies to the Atlantic.

The bureau added: "Below normal temperatures are anticipated in the plateau region and also in states along the northern border from the Great Lakes to the Pacific. In areas not specified, temperatures should average not far from normal. "Rainfall is expected to exceed normal in the Upper Mississippi Valley, Northern Plains, and Pacific Northwest. Near normal amounts are predicted over New England, the Great Lakes region, the Central Plains, and the Gulf and South Atlantic coasts. In the remainder of the nation subnormal rainfall is in prospect."

Admitted Slayer to Get a Lie Test

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A lie detector test is planned for a young Arkansas farm laborer who has changed his mind twice about the 1953 slaying of a 13-year-old suburban Valley Park girl.

Denver Darrell Morris, 22, formerly of St. Louis, and now of Marmaduke, Ark., was booked on suspicion of murder after giving police conflicting stories about the death of Leora Seiler.

He twice admitted killing the girl, police said, and twice repudiated his statements.

The girl's body was found in the ing taxpayers income tax deductions on cigarette taxes paid to the state.

New Jobless Cash Available Monday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — All offices of the Arkansas Employment Security Division will begin taking claims Monday under the federal temporary unemployment compensation act.

G. J. Hardwick, acting administrator, said the program applies only to persons who were eligible for state benefits and have exhausted them since June 30, 1957.

The program is not retroactive and benefits will be payable only for weeks of unemployment during which the claimant reports in person to the local office, Hardwick said.

Arkansas workers qualify for 18 weeks of regular unemployment compensation. Under the temporary program which ends April, 1958 a claimant will be eligible for a maximum of an additional nine weeks of benefits.

Old Time Desperado Is Given Parole

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Floyd Hamilton, a desperado of the 1930s, was granted a parole yesterday by Gov. Price Daniel.

The 49-year-old Hamilton was completing a 25-year sentence for a robbery by assault conviction in Dallas. He was released from the U. S. Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., in 1957 and unsuccessfully sought to avoid being returned to Texas to finish the approximately five years remaining on the robbery sentence.

Hamilton spent 18 years in federal prisons at Leavenworth and Alcatraz. He once tried to escape from Alcatraz.

Hamilton operated in a notorious gang that included his brother, Raymond Hamilton, Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker.

Meramec River about a month after she disappeared five years ago.

Officers said Morris took them to the scene and described killing the girl and accurately described the clothing she was wearing at the time.

He was picked up Sunday on a vagrancy charge and questioned about Leora's death after police found a newspaper account of it in his possession.

A pathologist's report said the girl was apparently dead before she was thrown in the river. A coroner's jury found that death was caused by suffocation.

Miss Leslie Marries
John E. Honea

Miss Leta Leslie became the bride of John E. Honea June 21, 1958 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Asbury Methodist Church in Little Rock. She is the daughter of Samuel Lee Leslie of DeWitt and the late Mrs. Leslie and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willis E.
Honea of Hope.

The Rev. Maurice Webb Sr., associate pastor, read the double-ring ceremony before a setting of pink roses and white lilies bounded in floor candelabra. Mrs. Coy Adams, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied George Hufsmith as he sang, "At Dawning," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballroom-length dress designed of white Chantilly lace over taffeta. The fitted bodice accented a scalloped neckline and long sleeves and a crown of seed pearls and orange blossoms held the fingertip double-tulle veil. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white stephanotis.

Mrs. Raymond Fitzgibbon, her sister's matron of honor, wore a waltz-length dress of white lace over cotton satin and a bandeau of white twisted net trimmed in seed pearls. Her nosegay was fashioned of pink feathered carnations.
Roy Rhea was best man and ushers were Troy Gate and Donald Stecks.

Mrs. Honea, mother of the groom wore a dress of beige embroidered linen with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

A reception followed in the church parlor.

will return to Little Rock where the groom is in business, and will live at 100 South Valentine Street.
Those from Hope attending the wedding were: Mrs. W. E. Honea,

Slogans Take Strange Look on July Fourth

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Some of our most revered slogans look a little strange on the even of this July 4.

1. The United States once proclaimed: millions for defense but not one cent for tribute.

Now we spend not millions for defense but millions. And 70 American servicemen and businessmen are detained in Communist China, the Soviet part of Armenia, the Russian occupied part of Germany, and the rebel held part of Cuba.

The ugly word tribute hasn't been mentioned but our State Department does talk about blackmail and some see little difference in meaning.

2. Grandmother used to plug hard for a safe and sane Fourth.
Her aim was to see that as few grandchildren as possible lost their fingers playing with firecrackers.

Casualties from fireworks probably and fortunately will be relatively few Friday. But what grandmother didn't foresee was the astoundingly prolific nature of the American automobile. It will kill or maim scores of persons over the holiday weekend while Americans congratulate themselves on observing a safe and sane Fourth by banning firecrackers.

3. The law of supply and demand was once regarded as in-vulnerable as any in the land. By it, prices went up when demand exceeded supply and went down when supply exceeded demand.

But the government linkers with that right along now. It tries to spurn demand by such things as making it easier and cheaper to borrow money with which to buy.
It linkers with supply by such things as buying surplus metals for its own stockpile or by taking over excess farm supplies.

4. Let the buyer beware was a slogan when the republic was young. Now there are a number of regulatory agencies devoted to seeing that the buyer gets what he thinks he's buying. This runs all the way from meat at the butcher shop to new stock issues on Wall Street.

5. A free economy is still one of our dearest boasts. But a multitude of federal and local laws and a growing number of commissions and agencies touch almost every businessman somehow, from his franchise to do business to his pricing policies and his relationship with his workers.

6. Back when the first July 4 was a very fresh memory in this land, President Washington spoke about the wisdom of the United States minding its own business and letting other nations mind theirs.

Now it's hard to put your finger on any spot on the globe where Uncle Sam isn't involved in one way or another.

This isn't to say that President Washington mightn't approve if he were here this July 4. It's just to point out that the old slogans, good as they still may be, just aren't applied the same way any more.

Thursday from Denton, Texas to spend the 4th of July holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Leo Hartsfield.

Lana to Try to Work in Movies Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lana Turner might have quit the movies after Johnny Stomphano's death except that "it's the only work I know."

The 38-year-old star's commitment came to light with the filing Monday of a Juvenile Court transcript.

It detailed a proceeding April 24 when a judge was deliberating the fate of Lana's 14-year-old daughter Cheryl Crane, acknowledged slayer of her mother's boy friend.

"A great part of me would like very much not to continue (in films)," Lana told the jurist. "However, the fact is that it's the only work I know, and that I have been the sole support of my daughter and my mother."

"I wish I could say that I had enough but money that I wouldn't have to work. I don't. I must continue working."

The record of the conversation was filed in an appeal court in an effort by Cheryl's father Stephen Crane to void a decision making his daughter a ward of the Juvenile Court.

Superior Judge Allen T. Lynch is scheduled to rule Sept. 25 on a possible revision of the girl's status.

A coroner's jury held the April 4 knife slaying was justifiable homicide after Lana testified that Stomphano had threatened to harm her.

A citation from the Wisconsin Council of Safety went to Leonard Verbie, foreman in a Kenosha firm, whose safety glasses protected his sight when a grinding wheel broke and hurled a sharp fragment into his face. His eyesight was saved by foresight.

Lawrence Has Become Ace of Redleg Staff

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

You can file Brooks Lawrence in that thin folder titled "Bad Deals by Frank Lane."

The big right-hander, plucked from the minors by Cincinnati after the St. Louis Cardinals had given up on him, has been the ace of the Redleg pitching staff since running up a 41-26 record in 21 seasons.

Lawrence won his fifth in a row, all complete games, Wednesday night with a four-hitter that returned the Redlegs to fourth place in the National League with a 1-0 decision over first place Milwaukee.

The Braves' lead was trimmed to three games again over St. Louis and San Francisco as the third place Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 in the only other NL game scheduled.

In the American League the New York Yankees defeated Baltimore 4-1 as Zack Monroe won in his starting debut. Detroit blanked Kansas City 5-0 on Jim Bunning's four-hitter, and Washington defeated Boston 5-3 despite Ted Williams' hitting. Those were the only AL games scheduled.

Monroe Proves a Real Find for Yankees

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Zack Monroe, a rookie right-hander just shy of his 27th birthday, has stamped himself a success in his first major league start for the New York Yankees. Which is like bootlegging booze to Peoria, Zack's home town.

Manager Casey Stengel already had a waiting list of starting pitchers on a staff that leads the American League in complete games and shutouts, not to mention that 912-game first place budge.

In case you're wondering, Peoria, a long-time but now late member of the Three-I League, is known for distilleries as well as tractors.

While Monroe, who perfected a palm ball because he couldn't master a change up pitch, was staying out of trouble for a 4-1 victory over Baltimore Wednesday night, the Detroit Tigers knocked off second place Chicago City 5-0 on the four-hit pitching of Jim Bunning. Washington defeated Boston 5-3 despite Ted Williams in the only other AL game scheduled.

In the National League, Cincinnati defeated Milwaukee 1-0, cutting the Braves' lead to three games. San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and closed within .001 of a percentage point of second place St. Louis in the only other game scheduled.

Monroe, a holdover from the spring rookie school who was farmed to Denver for lack of room on the Yankee staff, had worked

History Shows That Great Men With the Gout Seldom Go to War With Each Other

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Sidewalk

serenades of a Pavement Plato: There is one simple recipe for world peace that has never been tried. That is, to give the leading statesmen of every nation the gout.

I think it's worth a try. The theory that an epidemic of gout among the great men of our time might lead to a warfree world isn't as idle as it sounds. There is some pretty solid reasoning behind it.

There is a bond between victims of the gout like unto no other bond in the world. It is stronger than the bonds of love, passion, matrimony, friendship, patriotism, or the desire for wealth.

Gout unites mankind as the common cold divides it. No enemy is possible between two men once each finds the other has gout. An invisible tie binds them indissolubly. They are knit forever by the knowledge they have survived a suffering beyond the palliative ailments.

War between statesmen who are afflicted with gout is inconceivable. Men who have known Armageddon in their big toe are not interested in fighting each other on battlefields. They'd rather meet in peace and discuss remedies. They have a vast and natural respect for one another.

They realize that anybody can get pneumonia, the dullest cold can come down with mumps, but it takes a guy with class to get gout.

Many an ignorant lout, jealous because he cannot acquire gout himself, laughs loudly at this most aristocratic of diseases. He derides it as a penalty for loose living. But he knows in his heart he could live like a bum on the Bowery for 1,000 years and never get gout himself. He doesn't have the character.

The truth is that gout like money, is largely inherited. It runs in families. But what families? They have been the cream of every civilization. Anyone who looks a few cases of gout among find a few cases of gout among the limbs would do well to keep quiet about his ancestry.

It may be, here and there, that only 3-13 innings since being recalled June 15, and that was a shutout, no-hit relief job against the A's. Wednesday, he allowed five hits, one Dick Williams' first homer of the season that tied it 1-1, walked five and struck out two in seven innings. Ryno Duran mopped up after Monroe tired.

Billy O'Dell (8-9) gave up a run on three singles in the first, then blanked the Yankees until the seventh, when Tony Kubek's single scored the winning run. Bunning walked two and struck out five while winning his fourth in a row for a 6-5 record. Gail Harris hit his sixth homer and Al Kaline, hitless in three games, rapped a RBI double for the Tigers. Ralph Terry lost it for a 5-6 record with his sixth homer and Al Kaline, hitless in three games, rapped a RBI double for the Tigers. Ralph Terry lost it for a 5-6 record with his sixth homer.

Williams drove in all of Boston's runs, two with a 500-foot homer, his 13th of the year and fifth in six games. The Sox had the tying run on base in the ninth when Faye Thronberry slugged Lou Berber's pinch homer bid for the final out. Camilo Pascual (4-1) won it with relief help. Clint Courtney's two singles drove in three runs for the Senators, who bagged it with two unearned runs in the eighth off Tom Brewer (3-7).

someone, somehow did get gout as a price for galloping down the primrose path.

But, as the Encyclopedia Britannica sagely points out, the disease affects also persons "who observe the strictest temperance in living. And whose only excesses are in the direction of overwork, either physical or intellectual."

Naturally, this is the kind of gout that runs in families. Well, anyway, in my family.

Gout is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, of human diseases. There are two theories as to its origin.

One is that it is one of the penalties Adam paid for eating the forbidden fruit of knowledge.

The other theory is that Zeus originally decreed woman alone should suffer the pangs of childbirth. His wife, Juno, objected: Honey, you're not being fair. You should divide pain equally between the sexes. If you're going to be a god, act like one!

And to keep peace in his household on Olympus, Zeus said: "Okay, I'll give man the gout. That'll make them even."
